

Corporate Counsel magazine and The Best Lawyers in America®, the preeminent guide to the legal profession in the United States, are pleased to continue its series featuring lawyers named in the 13th edition of The Best Lawyers in America. This guide features attorneys who represent public and private companies as well as individuals in the area of FINANCIAL SERVICES Law.

Organized alphabetically (state, city, firm, attorney last name) this guide features expanded profiles as well as basic listings. These basic listings ensure that every listed lawyer in Financial Services Law is included.

It is not possible to purchase a listing in either The Best Lawyers in America or the Corporate Counsel/Best Lawyers section of this issue. Published since 1983, this guide is excerpted from The Best Lawyers in America 2007 (Copyright 2006 by Woodward/White, Inc., Aiken, SC) which includes listings for 29,769 lawyers in 77 specialties, in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. The complete database is available at www.bestlawyers.com. Woodward/White now updates its lists annually, conducting an exhaustive peer-review survey in which over 24,000 of the top lawyers in the United States register more than two million evaluations confidentially rating their professional peers. Ultimately, of course, a lawyer's inclusion in these lists is based on the subjective judgments of his or her fellow lawyers; as a result these lists may at times disproportionately reward visibility or popularity. Nevertheless, because of the breadth of its surveys, the candor of its respondents, and the sophistication of its polling methodology—and because lawyers are not required or allowed to pay a fee for a basic listing—Best Lawyers has gained the respect of the legal profession, the media, and clients as the most reliable, unbiased source of legal referrals anywhere.

The most recent edition of The Best Lawyers in America (2007) is available from the publisher. For information call 803-648-0300; write 129 First Avenue, Aiken, SC 29801; email info@bestlawyers.com; or visit www.best-lawyers.com. Recognized as the oldest continuous law practice in Birmingham and one of the oldest continuous practices in Alabama, the firm of Cabaniss, Johnston, Gardner, Dumas & O'Neal LLP has a distinguished history. The origins of the firm, which began in Birmingham in 1887, can be traced back to the firm's first lawyer, E. H. Cabaniss, who left the small Alabama town of Union Springs traveling to Birmingham to capitalize on the growth of industry and business in the rapidly growing southern town. There he formed Cabaniss & Banks. A merger in 1920 produced Cabaniss, Johnston, Cocke & Cabaniss. "Cabaniss Johnston" has been a familiar and respected name in Alabama legal circles ever since. The lawyers in the firm listed in the Best Lawyers Annual Guide to Financial Services are:

Carolyn L. Duncan's practice is concentrated in securities issuance and compliance matters. Experienced in a wide variety of public and private securities work, she represents issuers, underwriters, and other parties in numerous facets of this area of law, including public and private offerings of securities, registration and continuous disclosure matters, proxy solicitations, tender offers, business combinations, restricted securities and transactions by corporate insiders. She represents securities broker-dealer firms, banks, mutual funds, fund managers and investment advisors in connection with state and federal securities law matters and NASD, NYSE, MSRB and other regulatory and self-regulatory organization compliance.

Crawford S. McGivaren, Jr.'s practice has encompassed contract, antitrust, unfair trade, partnership, shareholder oppression, dissenter's rights, and director and officer liability litigation. Ultimately prevailing after two en banc opinions, he was the principal defense counsel in the securities case which first recognized the "fraud-on-the-market" theory of Rule 10b-5 liability. He was trial and appellate counsel in groundbreaking cases resulting in federal pre-emption decisions favorable to the rail industry. He has defended class and individual claims asserting product liability, consumer finance violations and insurance fraud. He successfully defended a large Atlanta bank against fraud charges in the sale of derivative contracts. He has handled employment, non-compete, and tortious interference claims and recently undertook the successful defense of a long-running Human Rights Act case in West Virginia.

Benjamin T. Rowe specializes in civil litigation. His practice includes the representation of defendants in personal injury and wrongful death cases, manufacturers and others in products liability litigation, the representation of insurers in first party litigation (including bad faith and declaratory judgment actions), insurance agencies in cases of alleged fraud and negligence, businesses in commercial disputes, professionals in errors and omissions litigation, contractors and others in construction litigation, as well as environmental and ERISA litigation, and the defense of employers against claims of discrimination.
