HOGAN & HARTSON

With 25 offices and strategic locations in capitals, business centers, and markets across the globe, the attorneys in Hogan and Hartson's International Litigation and Arbitration practice provide our clients with litigation and arbitration advice and services tailored to their specific needs in any given market. Our team of multilingual and multicultural legal professionals serve as lead counsel and try cases in English, French, German, Portuguese Russian, and Spanish.

Having prosecuted and defended disputes throughout the United States, Western and Eastern Europe, Latin America, Asia, the Middle East, and Africa, our team includes a roster of highly competent and experienced attorneys who practice law with an in-depth knowledge of the distinct customs, rules and procedures of tribunals throughout the world. Our experience includes practice before the International Chamber of Commerce, the International Centre for Dispute Resolution, the London Court of International Arbitration, the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal, the International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes, the Swiss Chambers of Commerce, the Dubai International Arbitration Centre, the Singapore Arbitration Centre, CIETAC in China, and the United Nations Compensation Commission. We frequently appear in forums established in connection with the World Trade Organization, the North American Free Trade Agreement, and the Inter-American Commission for Human Rights. This breadth of experience and exposure enables us to provide a degree of legal representation that is exceptional among law firms.

Our unwavering commitment to providing clients with first-rate personalized service is fostered by our team-oriented approach and culture of collegiality — allowing for seamless collaboration across practices and borders. Our global footprint helps to ensure excellent client service because, unlike many large firms that have their international litigation and arbitration practices centrally located in only two or three offices, we are able to have high-level international dispute-resolution attorneys on the ground when and where our client needs us. This extensive reach means that we can make time zone differences work in your favor, improving response time and providing you with greater coordination, expediency, and cost-savings.

Working at the intersection of business and government, both domestically and internationally, we help our clients strategize and successfully resolve their disputes and vigorously represent their interests in all kinds of complex litigation, arbitration, and dispute resolution.
