HORVITZ & LEVY LLP

Lisa Perrochet, a partner with Horvitz & Levy LLP, the nation's largest civil appellate law firm, is a California State Bar Certified Appellate Specialist. Her name has appeared on more than 70 published opinions and dozens of unpublished opinions covering toxic tort, product liability, punitive damages, class actions, unfair competition, insurance coverage and bad faith. In 2007, Ms. Perrochet received a "California Lawyer Attorneys of the Year" award for obtaining a reversal of a $91.7 million inverse condemnation verdict in Border Business Park, Inc. v. City of San Diego. She was also named a "Top Woman Litigator" by the Los Angeles/San Francisco Daily Journal.

Earlier this year, Ms. Perrochet was instrumental in creating the firm's in-depth legal blog – CalPunitives.com – an up-to-date analysis and discussion of issues related to punitive damages litigation in California.

Ms. Perrochet is on the Board of Directors of the Association of Southern California Defense Counsel and is editor of its principal publication, Verdict magazine. She has authored articles on a range of topics for law reviews, periodicals and practice guides. Ms. Perrochet received her Bachelor of Arts from the University of California – Los Angeles (magna cum laude) and her Juris Doctor from Loyola Law School (cum laude).
