Kenyon & Kenyon LLP is one of the largest full-service intellectual property law firms in the United States, with offices in New York, Washington DC, and Silicon Valley. The firm is a leader in enforcing and defending intellectual property rights for its global and domestic clients. The firm has been ranked as one of the top United States law firms in contentious and non-contentious representation by, among others, the 2009 editions of Chambers, Managing Intellectual Property's World IP Survey and The Legal 500.

The firm represents some of the world's best-known corporations in patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, unfair competition, false advertising, antitrust and other litigation relating to intellectual property. It also represents clients in administrative proceedings such as patent prosecution and interferences, trademark prosecution, and trademark oppositions and cancellations, and in licensing, technology transfer and due diligence transactions.

The firm strives to provide the best client representation through its experience, technological expertise, anticipation of client needs, clear and open communication, and an understanding of the vital role played by a comprehensive intellectual property protection and enforcement strategy. With clients in virtually every major industrial country, Kenyon & Kenyon knows the value, power and importance of recruiting and retaining professional men and women from social, economic, and cultural backgrounds which reflect a population as diverse as the clients whom we serve, and the communities in which we work and live. The firm has always recognized and continues to benefit from the melding of different backgrounds.
