ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Alan D. Lash has a unique national practice, combining a business litigation background with specialized expertise in commercial healthcare matters.

For 25 years, Mr. Lash has represented publicly traded for-profit hospital chains, individual teaching hospitals, non-profit hospitals, third-party payors, large provider networks, and corporate multi-specialty healthcare providers in the prosecution and defense of complex litigation matters involving antitrust, class actions, limited partnerships, acquisitions and divestitures, and high stakes contractual disputes in arbitration and state and federal courts.

Mr. Lash is the only attorney Board Certified by the Florida Bar as a specialist in Health Law and recognized by Best Lawyers in America for both commercial litigation and health law. Mr. Lash additionally serves as an Arbitrator for the American Health Lawyers Association's ADR Service and the American Arbitration Association's (AAA) Commercial Panel. He is one of a select few attorneys nationwide invited to serve on the AAA's Healthcare Dispute Resolution Advisory Council and serves on the committee charged with developing AAA commercial arbitration rules specific to payor-provider disputes. He is a frequent lecturer and author on commercial healthcare litigation topics.
