Kay Nord Hunt is an appellate advocate, practicing in the courts of Minnesota and Wisconsin, the Seventh and Eighth Circuit Courts of Appeal and the U.S. Supreme Court. Having handled over 400 appeals, she hones in on pivotal issues to be presented on appeal. She represents clients in disputes involving securities, liens, insurance, employment, contracts, bankruptcy, family law, medical malpractice and many other civil matters. She works closely with trial lawyers and handles certification matters and other complex hearings; prepares or responds to motions to exclude expert testimony, motions for summary judgment and other dispositive motions, motions seeking sanctions and post-trial motions; she monitors trials to preserve issues on appeal; she prepares trial briefs; and she handles mandamus or interlocutory appeals. She associates with counsel or works directly with clients. Ms. Hunt is a member of the American Academy of Appellate Lawyers, is a Best Lawyer in America, is among the list of Top 100 Minnesota Super Lawyers® and is an adjunct professor at the University of St. Thomas School of Law.
