Senior District Judge of the 200th District Court
(Via E-Mail)

Re: Cause No. 2009-422,831 in the 140th District Court of Lubbock County, Texas;
State v. Ronald R. Johnson (Ben Webb Contempt Matter)

Dear Judge Davis:

Thank you for agreeing to preside in the above matter. I have enclosed to you a copy of your Assignment whereby I am assigning you to determine whether a hearing is proper and, if so, to conduct a hearing related to a contempt finding issued against attorney Ben Webb in Lubbock.

The attorney for Mr. Webb is Roderique Hobson, whose e-mail address is cyndashopper@aol.com. The attorney who represented the State during the relevant time was Josh Reno, an Assistant Criminal District Attorney in Lubbock County. His e-mail address is jreno@co.lubbock.tx.us.

By copy of this letter, I am providing Mr. Hobson and Mr. Reno with a copy of your Assignment and a copy of this letter. Per your instructions, they are also advised that they should do the following:

1. Each attorney should send to you copies of any documents, pleadings, transcripts, etc., that they think are relevant to the matter;
2. Each attorney should provide you with copies of any pleadings that have been filed related to this matter; and

3. Each attorney should advise of their position on whether a hearing is necessary and, if so, the length of time needed for a hearing.

You have requested, and I hereby advise the attorneys, that you prefer to receive these materials by email to the extent possible. The attorneys should be sure to avoid ex parte communications by including opposing counsel on all email communications.

Finally, by copy of this letter, I am advising Judge Darnell of the status of this matter.

Sincerely,
